Cultural Anthropology: A Global Perspective (6th Edition) Raymond Scupin

This book is grounded in the belief that an enhanced global awareness is essential for people preparing to take their place in the fast-paced, increasingly interconnected world of the twenty-first century. The book draws upon classic and recent research in biological, cultural, linguistic, social, economic, and political anthropology, and the anthropology of religion to produce a holistic and global perspective of humanity. For anyone interested in the developing integrated global society.
