A Tale of Two Kitties -- Taj and Bodhi John Ryan

This is an enchanting story about two majestic felines-always so proud and dignified. They appear to be brothers, but they aren't. How they came to live with Helen, an artist in Santa Fe, New Mexico, is almost miraculous-a difference of a few moments, in both their cases, would have meant that Helen would have never gotten either of them and they would never be together. It was indeed through fairy tale serendipity and a truly last minute fortuitous course of events that these two marvellous kitties came to live with Helen. As an artist, Helen has made room in her lifestyle to accommodate the needs and pleasures of her two feline companions. In turn, Taj and Bodhi have enriched Helen's life and have brought her much happiness. In Helen's home these two cats have been free to develop their unique personalities, and in the way Helen has freedom in her home, so do these two kitties. At a time when the world is in such desperate need of happy stories, this is such a story . . . for the enjoyment of both adults and children.
