Russia's Prestige: Historical Architecture Kashif Parvaiz

Russian architecture has since Medieval times reflected Russia's history directly. Starting when the powerful nation was the tiny state of Kieven Rus' and culminating in modern Russia, this book examines their architectural works and its relation to the nation's state of affairs. It provides a timeline of Russia's main historical periods, their evolution and impact on the vision of Russia. The biographies of the architects included in the book are the author's attempt to enrich the reader's experience by letting them get a feel for the environment the architects build in.

Whether enjoying this book as an easy read or while using it in academics, you are bound to take a lot away from it. Rich, compelling and evocative, this book will enhance your imagination and pique your curiosity in the architecture of Russia.

"Yet, however beautiful the vision drawn up by the words on a page, there is no substitute for the real adventure of Russia unless you visually experience it yourself. Enjoy the trip as much as I have."
