New Testament Greek and Exegesis: Essays in Honor of Gerald F. Hawthorne

In this book well-known Christian scholars — all of whom have been directly influenced by Jerry Hawthorne's teaching — present important studies reflecting the diversity of interest within the field of New Testament studies generally.

The topics explored in this volume range from lexical studies of key Greek terms to discussions of themes and passages from the Gospels and the Epistles to fresh engagements with issues that have been central to Hawthorne's own writings. "New Testament Greek and Exegesis" not only salutes the career and character of its distinguished honoree but also offers an up-to-date look at the academic study of the New Testament.
