The Hall of the Mountain King: The True Story of a Tragic Climb Howard H. Snyder

A record of the 1967 Wilcox Expedition to climb Alaska's Mount McKinley, the tallest peak in North America, which ended with seven of the twelve mountaineers frozen to death in the arctic snow. Snyder, one of the climbers, reconstructs the luckless adventure from earliest planning to the final descent by the survivors. In between there's all the tension of men against the full force of hostile nature...and human error.
