"[A] swashbuckling account. ... To someone who interfaces infrequently with wildlife law enforcement, two things fairly leap from the pages of Grosz's books. One is the unbridled fervor he and fellow officers exude for enforcing the nation's game laws. The other is the lengths to which some miscreants in the outdoor fraternity will go to break them. ... After you read his books, you'll never look at a wildlife officer the same way again." —Charlie Meyers, The Denver Post
