Behind almost every problem in today's headlines, from gas prices to religious violence and failed states, stands the problem that nobody wants to talk about—Earth's skyrocketing population. Too Many meets this "elephant in the living room" head-on and spells out a simple solution. In straightforward, down-to-earth style, Too Many shows humanity's crisis and what to do about it. This book is an impassioned and easy-to-read plea for common sense.
