Paula Isabell Allende

En diciembre de 1991, Paula cae enferma de porfiaría, es este un momento fundamental para la escritora, pues aquí comienza a escribirle, en un sencillo cuaderno, a su hija la historia familiar, como se conocieron sus bisabuelos, abuelos, Isabel con Michael y Willie y por último Paula con su amado Ernesto, para que cuando despierte, ayudarla a recuperar la memoria. Escribe aquí la soledad y sufrimiento que siente estar sentada todo el día junto a una camilla, sobre ella, su hija paralizada con quien ha vivido maravillosos 28 años, a su alrededor desoladores pasillos blancos del hospital de Madrid. Debe tolerar a diario los devastadores informes de los doctores sobre la salud de su hija, todos le aseguran que morirá, le dicen que la deje ir, que su egoísmo pero a la vez amor indefinido a superado limites, su yerno Ernesto, visita a Paula a diario, demostrándole el profundo amor que siente, por momentos se rinde, le pide a Dios que termine con ese sufrimiento, pero Isabel no, resiste, tiene toda una vida planeada para cuando llegue el esperado momento en que su hija se recupere. En un principio Isabel tiene el apoyo físico de su madre, pues junto a ella, están en una reducida habitación de hotel en Madrid, pero luego el cansancio la supera y decide volver a California, aun así su marido Willie vuela interminables horas para apoyar a su mujer, la visita una o dos veces por mes. Con el tiempo, Paula comienza a ser un objeto de observación e investigación, la desinteresada y la poca profesionalidad de la atención de los médicos provoca que Isabel quiera llevarse a su hija a California, pero no puede debido a su delicada salud, cursos enteros de estudiantes de medicina estudian a Paula pero sin ningún signo de respeto, amigos y familiares visitan a Paula y apoyan a Isabel en ese difícil desafío que la vida le ha dado.
