Cliche has it that, once the I do's are spoken the sex-life slowly diminishes. In Till Sex Do Us Part, Trina Read presents a brilliantly simple explanation for this unfortunate phenomenon, as well as the key to ending the cycle of diminished sexual connection between married couples. Read contends that married women must learn to have married-woman sex, instead of insisting on pursuing the same single-woman sexual patterns they once knew. Married women must shift their perspectives and go from seeing sex as a source of tension and stress to seeing sex as a positive and integral aspect of a marriage. This readable, sex-positive guide features bite-size chunks of useful information and can help even the most harried wife re-evaluate her own relationship to married sex.
